RE: C.V. RANCHES (GRANT SIMONS)

Dear Sir/Madam:

Your temporary alien agricultural labor certification application, which was received by this office on March 25, 2004, has been reviewed, and it has been determined that it does not meet the requirements of 20 CFR 655.101 – 655.103. Consequently, pursuant to the provisions of 20 CFR 655.104, your application is not being accepted for consideration on the grounds that the availability of U.S. workers cannot be tested because the benefits, wage rates, and/or working conditions do not meet the criteria of the regulations.

The specific reasons why your application cannot be accepted for consideration, with citations to the relevant regulatory standards, appear on the enclosed checklist.

You may submit a modified application. The modifications that are required for consideration of your application also appear on the checklist. If you choose to file a modified application, it must be received in this office no later than the above captioned date. Include your case number on any correspondence sent to the regional office. Failure to do so may result in a delay in processing your application. Direct inquiries to Dave Munson at 206-553-5297, ext. 8023. Also, send the information to the Seattle office, Suite 815 instead of 900.

At the time you file a modified application with this office, you must submit a duplicate modified application to the State Workforce Agency office where you submitted the duplicate of your initial application.

If the modifications in that application are the ones specified in this notice, and the modified application is received by the date requested, it will be accepted for consideration, and a certification determination will be made on your application not later than thirty (30) days prior to your date of need.

If you file a modified application, and it does not contain all the modifications listed in this notice, we will not be able to accept it for consideration. In such event, the application will be returned to you again for further consideration.

If you file a modified application, and it contains all the modifications listed in this notice, but it is not received in the office by the date indicated, the certification determination will be postponed one day for each day's delay in receiving the modified application.

As provided by the regulations at 20 CFR 655.104(c), you have the opportunity to request an expedited administrative judicial review or a de novo hearing before a Department of Labor (DOL) Administrative Law Judge on the non-acceptance of the application. To obtain this review or de novo hearing, you must file within seven (7) calendar days of the date of this notice by facsimile (fax), telegram or other means normally assuring next day delivery, a written request for such a review or hearing to the Chief Administrative Law Judge, U.S. Department of Labor, 800 K Street NW, Suite 400, Washington, DC 20001-8002, with a copy to this office. The request for a review or hearing should contain any legal arguments that you believe will rebut the basis for the non-acceptance of the application.

If you do not request an expedited administrative judicial review or a de novo hearing before an Administrative Law Judge within seven (7) calendar days of the date of this notice of non-acceptance, or if you do not choose to resubmit a modified application within five (5) calendar days, no further consideration of the application will be made by any Department of Labor official.

Sincerely,

Martin Rios
